Tropical Islands – Europe's largest tropical holiday world

Tropical Islands Campsite: Camping on the edge of the tropics

The Tropical Islands campsite is situated right next to Europe's largest tropical leisure world and in the heart of wonderful Brandenburg moorland, on the edge of the Spreewald forest and Dahme-Heideseen nature reserve. The site meets the most modern standards and is the equivalent of a five-star facility - indeed it has even won a prestige ADAC award.

Enjoy a relaxing holiday among meadows, pine woods and country footpaths, close to water sports areas and the Spreewald biosphere reserve: the Tropical Islands Campsite in Brandenburg offers all of this and more. And of course, what really sets this site apart is its proximity to Europe's largest tropical leisure world! Tropical Islands is within sight and easy to reach via the free shuttle bus. By the way, camping guests only have to pay one day admission to Tropical Islands, after that every additional day in the tropics is free.

The campsite encompasses an area of 6 hectares. It fulfils all modern standards (family bathrooms, dog shower, dump station etc.) with its 91 caravan pitches (standard, comfort), 34 teepees for hire, 5000 square metre camping area and first class sanitary facilities. A camp shop also sells products to cover your daily needs, and also offers a breakfast option and bicycle hire, which allows you to explore the local area at a nice price. There is also a playground where our younger guests can let off some steam. And of course no modern campsite would be complete without WiFi.

The Tropical Islands Campsite is 60 km south of Berlin and 100 km north of Dresden. We are located just off the A13 Berlin/Dresden motorway: leave the motorway at the Staakow exit. The following address should be used for satellite navigation systems: Tropical-Islands-Allee 1, 15910 Krausnick. The GPS coordinates are: Latitude: N 52 degrees, 01' 42", Longitude: E 13 degrees, 43' 53".
